Dear Mr. Luce:

Thank you for your letter of 29 September 1961, asking me to consider your firm as a possible publisher of any book I may write after I leave the Central Intelligence Agency.

As you can readily appreciate, I will be unable to make any definite plans until my present job is over.

With appreciation of your interest, I remain

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Luce:

Thank you for your letter of 29 September 1961, asking me to consider your firm as a possible publisher of any book I may write after I leave the Central Intelligence Agency.

As you can readily appreciate, I will be unable to make any definite plans until my present job is over. However, I hope to write on something that is worthwhile and, of course, provided it can be sold. Several offers have been received but no commitment has been made to any publisher. I shall certainly keep your offer in mind.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
